

Sacramento Ethnic Community Survey
Oral History Index
Interview of Maxine Dubose By Thomas D. Norris
September 16, 1983z

Time Into Tape	Subject
0:00	Introduction by interviewer.
1:10	Reason for coming to California from Texas, 1945.
4:30	Husband becomes minister of First Southern Baptist Church of Sacramento.
9:45	Description of location of the original First Southern Baptist Church of Sacramento, 1946.
10:50	Description of the first congregation: size, origins, family status, and socio-economic class.
13:35	Role of the Church in the spiritual and social life of its members.
17:25	Social activities in the Church.
19:00	Role of women in the early Church: Mrs. Dubose's role as pastor's wife; duties of other women members; women's contribution to the success of the Church.
25:10	Initial impressions held by neighboring Sacramento community of Southern Baptists.
26:50	Women and the proliferation of the Southern Baptist Church in Sacramento.
27:55	Women's financial contribution and their part in the construction of a church building annex.
29:05	Southern Baptists' relationship with the surrounding community.

End of Side One

Dubose Interview

Time Into Tape	Subject
0:00	Southern Baptists' relationship with the community (continued).
3:20	Friction between Southern and American Baptists in California and Sacramento.
5:10	Relocation of church, 1949; description of move and buildings at 12th Avenue site.
7:20	Church government and structure: professional staff, 1949; Board of Deacons, 1949; decision making process.
13:50	Further discussion of move to 12th Avenue location.
18:50	Community services: children's home; jail services; outdoor services for transients, 2nd and K Streets.
21:25	Reverend Dubose's missionary work in Northern California and Nevada.
22:10	Listing of churches begun in Sacramento area by First Southern Baptist. Church members.
24:45	Life in California--looking back.
28:40	Final comments on how general community viewed Southern Baptists and Southerners in 1940s.

End Interview